

Choose Kenyan McDuffie as one of your two votes for D.C. Council At-Large

A Public Servant Rooted in Our Community:

- » Fourth-generation Washingtonian
- » Served as a civil rights lawyer, U.S. Dept. of Justice
- » Has served on the D.C. City Council since 2013

Working to Expand Economic Opportunity and Improve Community Safety:

- » McDuffie created the program to help reduce crime by expanding counseling and mental health services in low-income neighborhoods.
- » Led the effort to fund relief for D.C. small businesses, helping them survive during the pandemic and keep workers on payroll.
- » Secured grants to help local small businesses get access to capital, helping bring jobs to under-served neighborhoods.

The Washington Post

October 3, 2022

“Mr. McDuffie is the clear choice...He can serve the city with his balanced approach to lawmaking in which he listens to all sides and carefully weighs issues. Of particular note has been his focus on small businesses as a way to grow the local economy.”

Kenyan lives in the Stronghold neighborhood with his wife and their two daughters.

ENDORSED BY:

The Washington Post

“Mr. McDuffie is the clear choice...”

More Economic Opportunity
Leads to Safer Neighborhoods

Vote Kenyan McDuffie
D.C. Council At-Large