

Dean Browning & Doug Mastriano

Like Two Peas in a Pod

Dean Browning & Doug Mastriano Perfect Together

Dean Browning is running for State Senate, taking a page right out of Doug Mastriano's playbook. While Lehigh Valley residents want leaders who bring people together to solve problems, these two are focused on pushing an ideological agenda that tears apart our community.

▶ Trying to Overturn the 2020 Pennsylvania Election

Just days before the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol, Browning joined Mastriano in praising the bogus lawsuit to overturn the results of the election in Pennsylvania, declaring that he stands with the part of the country that "does not feel the election was legitimate," Browning wrote.

▶ Pushing for Radical Changes to Our Laws on Abortion

Now that Roe v. Wade has been overturned, Dean Browning wants to restrict our freedoms. He promises to work with gubernatorial candidate Doug Mastriano to enact some of the most extreme laws in the nation. Browning vows to ban abortion, even in cases of rape and incest.
