Suhas Subramanyam
has dedicated his life to family and service, and he's always fighting to help those in need.

Suhas, his wife, Miranda, and their daughters are longtime Ashburn residents.

Suhas has served as a volunteer EMT and firefighter, protecting families and businesses in Loudoun County.

He worked for Democrats in Congress, where he focused on improving health care access.

He served in the White House, advising President Obama on protecting the nation from cybersecurity threats.

In the Virginia General Assembly, he has passed laws to defend abortion rights and strengthen gun control.
